Barcelona. Walking tour Gothic quarter & Las Ramblas

You will stroll along the Ramblas, the pedestrian boulevard that is considered the nerve center of Barcelona. Then, we will move into the Gothic Quarter—the oldest part of the city. After visiting Plaza Nova with its twin semicircular towers of the well-preserved Roman Walls, and following remaining ruins, you will arrive at the cathedral, a gothic structure dating from the 14th and 15th centuries. The cathedral complex also contains three medieval palaces: Casa dels Canogues, Casa del Dega and the most important—Casa de L'Ardiaca. Following Avenida de la Catedral you will arrive at the beautiful Plaza del Rey, where the Palau Major Reial is located. Plaza de Sant Jaume, administrative center of the city and site of the Palau de la Generalitat, a 15th century gothic structure with renaissance facade is next. Across the plaza, the Town Hall is located within a 14th century building.

The Tour Includes:

- English speaking local guide
- Walking Tour through the historical heart of Barcelona

Madrid. Habsburgs Walking Tour

The visit will begin in the Plaza de la Encarnacion, where one of the most significant monuments of the XVII Century can be found: the Monasterio de las monjas agustinas descalzas de La Encarnacion. In the centre of the Plaza de Oriente, we find the famous statue on horse of King Phillip IV, another treasure of the XVIIth Century. Our route continues past the Calle Bailen towards its intersection with Calle Mayor, in order to gaze at the magnificent Palacio del Duque de Uceda. Next to it another building will attract our attention, the Iglesia del Sacramento. Walking through the Calle del Sacramento we continue towards the Plaza de la Villa, a beautiful square with interesting buildings. From there, we walk past Calle del Codo, Plaza del Conde de Miranda and the Convento de las Carboneras (convent) towards the Plaza Mayor, landmark of the city. Exiting this square and walking towards the Calle de Atocha, we end up in the Plaza de la Provincia.
